9. (Un)healthy Youth Relationships for Secondary Students

February is also teen dating violence awareness month. Presented by Radius Child and Youth Services, in this workshop for secondary students, youth will learn about the different types of abuse and how unhealthy relationships can begin. We will cover several "red flags" or warning signs that could be indicators of an abusive or unhealthy relationships. Statistics regarding types of abuse in different populations will be presented, as well as the impact of abuse on victims. Finally, we will talk about how you can help a friend who might be in an unhealthy relationship, and where the person perpetrating the abuse can seek help. Cost: Free

10. CCAH Sizzlin' Halton Cooking Sessions for Schools

Sessions are designed for Secondary students in culinary programs but are also an excellent opportunity for ESL students and participants in social justice or hospitality programs. While the episodes are focused on Caribbean cooking, food is a basic human need that transcends across all cultures and each Chef facilitates a general discussion about food being a bridge among ethnicities.

Virtual

These are 30-minute pre-recorded sessions followed by an optional live/virtual discussion (30 minutes) with the chefs regarding food and cooking styles unique to the Caribbean. There are six video options to choose from among four chefs. Virtual sessions are broadcast via the Ministry of Education virtual portals. COST: $200 for video and virtual chef discussion; unlimited number of students/classes per session. CCAHA to cover 50% of costs during February.

In-person

All chefs are available for in-person sessions at high schools equipped with kitchens. Foods prepared can be from the Sizzlin' Halton series (6 episodes) or at the request of the school. As all chefs are professionals, booking requires 2-4 weeks' notice to block calendars and shop for ingredients. Sessions are generally 1 hour. COST: $400 for purchasing ingredients, travel and onsite time. CCAH to cover 50% of costs during February. Expenses for ingredients will be charged as a pass-through and will vary depending on the food prepared.
